

You are invited to participate in the Region 9 Office of Research and Development Product Expo!

This event is the most recent of the Office of Research and Development (ORD) Product Expo Series showcasing "ready to use" and "nearly ready to use" science products. The Expo is an opportunity to see the products described and demonstrated, get answers to your questions and learn more about several products directly from the developers.

Where:

U.S. EPA Region 9 Office
FIRST FLOOR CONFERENCE ROOMS
U.S. EPA Region 9 Office
75 Hawthorne Street
San Francisco, CA 94105

When:

FEBRUARY 8, 2005
9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (PST)

Registration:

Onsite attendees may register at USEPA Office, but please e-mail your intention to attend to Kathy Dadey, dadey.kathleen@epa.gov. If you are unable to attend in person, see page 2 for information on the simultaneous webcast.

The ORD Product Expo Series is an effort to showcase specific “ready to use” and “nearly ready to use” science products, and demonstrate how EPA Regions and States might use them to address a variety of environmental issues.

The first exposition was held at EPA Headquarters during the June 1-3, 2004, Science Forum in Washington, DC. Fifteen “ready-to-use” products were displayed. Region 5 hosted the first Regional Expo in October 2004, showcasing four different products.
